Additional Rules

Each Swiss tournament starts at the specific time and progresses through a series of rounds.

This means that each player has to be online and registered for the tournament before the starting time!

If a player is not online when the tournament begins, he won't be able to compete. After each round, players must wait, staying online, until all players finish their games before the next round begins. (30 seconds after the end of the last game.)

Additional Rules

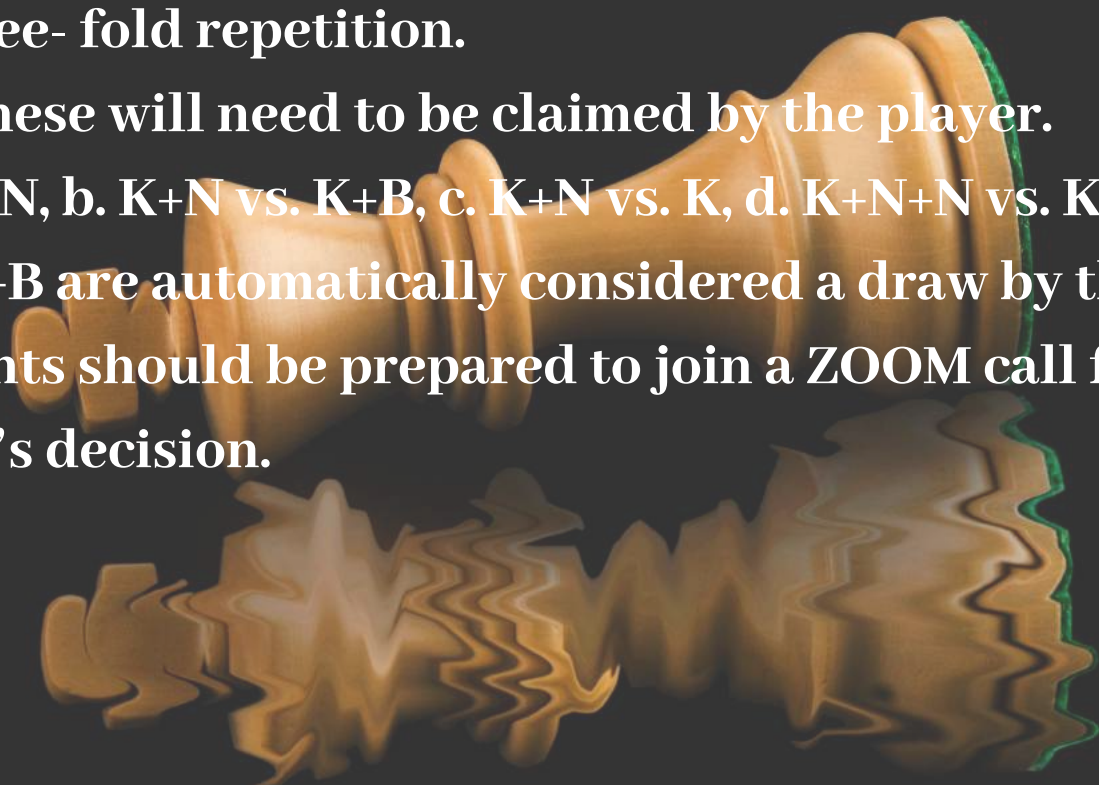

The 50-move rule is automatically awarded as a draw by the server, as is a three- fold repetition.

None of these will need to be claimed by the player.

K+N vs K+N, b. K+N vs. K+B, c. K+N vs. K, d. K+N+N vs. K, e. K+B vs. K, f. K+B vs. K+B are automatically considered a draw by the server.

Participants should be prepared to join a ZOOM call for proctoring at arbiter's decision.
